

Case Study | Cork Road

The Challenge

A period home with vibrant decor and plenty of character wasn't attracting the attention it deserved with a previous agent.

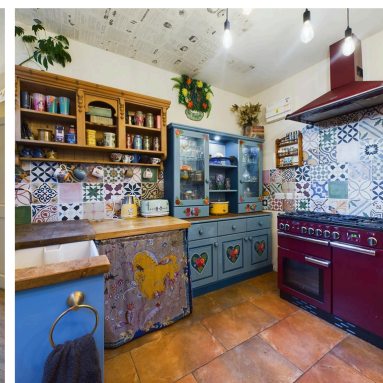

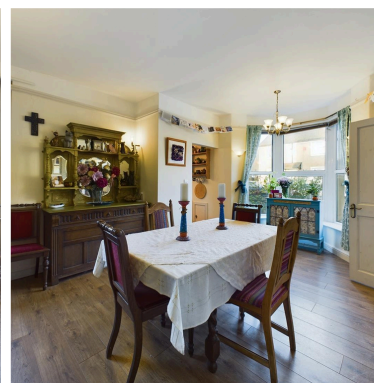

Our Approach

We suggested redecorating with neutral tones to appeal to a wider audience. After marketing the updated property to our network of buyers, we generated immediate interest.

The Outcome

- Multiple viewings arranged within days.
- A buyer found within two weeks.
- The sale is now progressing smoothly toward completion, highlighting our personalised and effective service.
